The River Of Dreams

The class of 2001 turned the gym into their own river of dreams. A beautiful cascading waterfall gave the gym a special glow. Each couple walked up the bridge walkways and met under an arch of colorful flowers. A few students participated in some risky business to get the large rocks that bordered the walkways. We won't mention any names.

Frank Woodruff was the prom chairperson of the class of 2001. Although times may have been stressful, he pulled off a great prom. This prom couldn't have taken place without many other people. Our advisor, Page Jenny, was instrumental in the development of our River of Dreams. Bottom line, our class came together to make something great.

Bill Witt, from the JukeBox Bandstand was the D.J. and one of the best ones W.D.H.S. has seen in years.

At 8:00pm Grand March began, and the crowd was anxious to see who was crowned King and Queen. In the end it was Bernadette Starzyk and Frank Woodruff.

The Prom of 2000 was a great experience and for all those that attended, it was a night they'll never forget.

Achieving Success...Track and Field

Fun, perseverance, and talent united a winning '00 track and field team, who only saw one new face in the coaching staff: long distance coach John Belter. Returning for the second season were Head Coach Bob Johnson and triple jump relay coach, Hugh Gatson. With the help of the coaches, the girl's team was led to nine regional champions, while the boy's 800-meter relay team became conference champions. One fine day at the Fenske-Reinking Field, the hosting Dells team placed first overall in both boy's & girl's meets against Rio. Pat Scully won the long and triple jumps.

Throughout the season, the track and field team had a motto, "Success doesn't happen, you set it in motion." No one could have expected such awesome accomplishment by the track and field team. The pressure will be on for the track and field team of 2001!

Look at those pipes! Monica Beard set a personal record at the Dells Invitational with 33'44 1/2".

Kattie tosses in a strike.

"Last season, our inexperience cost us some close games, but I think that the team continued to show a lot of improvement throughout the season," stated the Dells Softball Coach, Dale Gray.

Hoping to improve on the previous year, the Lady Chiefs marched onto the field, not quite sure about what they should expect. With only losing three seniors from the previous season, the Lady Chiefs had very high expectations. The year was off to a great start, as they traveled to Reedsburg to win their season opener. The Lady Chiefs continued to be successful, as they ended up with a third place finish in the conference. The girls beat Mauston, Baraboo, and Adams twice. They split with Reedsburg, and had tough losses to Nekoosa and Portage. Portage proved to be the team to beat, as they took first place in the South Central Conference. The Lady Chiefs ended their season with a heartbreaking loss at Regionals in Lodi. Lodi beat them 3-1. The Lady Chiefs are only losing one senior, and are expected to do very well in the SCC next season. They open up the next season playing against the Warriors.

"To win these games, we need mental aspects and self-confidence. If we have this, we will win games," said Coach Gray. Without his and Coach Deanna Moon's wisdom and guidance, the Chiefs would never have made it through the season as well as they did.

Baseball

A young Dells Varsity Baseball team took to the field with a tournament squad comprised of two freshmen, six sophomores, and three juniors. Even with a youthful lineup, the batting Chiefs got three conference wins in 2000. Led by unanimous first team all-conference selection Johnny Fish, the Chiefs got conference wins over Adams-Friendship, Reedsburg, and Nekoosa. Four of the Chiefs 18 losses came by one run. The Chiefs also had a non-conference victory, on a cold wintry April evening, over Rhinelander. The Chiefs were led in the dugout by Head Coach Bret Anderson and assistant coach Scott Frederickson; while Mark Hamburg and Mike Michalsky coached the Junior Varsity and Freshmen teams. The Varsity Baseball Chiefs ended their season at Columbus in a close game which ended in an 11-5 loss. That was the Chiefs only tournament game played in 2000.

Varsity Squad Led By Four Juniors

Dells Linksters- Young but Talented

The golf team was led by first-year coach Ralph Radtke. The returning lettermen were juniors Caleb Turbett and Josh Spychalla, and sophomore Nick Schulz. The other two members of the varsity squad were Micha Hudack and Ben Hazelkorn. With no seniors on the team, the four junior players had a difficult job to lead the Chiefs.

The highlight of the year for the team was at the Sparta Invitational where the Dells took a 2nd place finish and were led by Nick's 81.

Caleb Turbett was the only all-conference selection for the team and earned a third straight birth at the WIAA Sectionals.

The JV team consisted of Cory Jermier, Dustin Schultz, Jeff Kaminski, Anthony Hall, and Pat Gavinski. Other members of the team included Rob Murphy, Andy Polubinsky, Brett Schwartz, and Aaron Waterman.

The Chiefs are looking forward to a great season with all five varsity players as returning lettermen.

The Sky is the Limit

The 2000 volleyball squad had eight returning letter winners and a total of thirteen on the team. Even though the season didn't turn out as well as wanted, the obvious was the sky is the limit. Beating Portage 15-1 and finishing 1st in their pool in the LaCrosse tournament showed and proved their talent. In the end the girls ended up 2-10. Overall matches wise they were 28-54.

Cross Country 2000

The 2000 Cross Country team was outstanding. As a team they worked hard, listened well, tried new ideas, reached their goals, and most of all had fun. The Lady Chiefs did an excellent job working together. They had a fine leader, who cared about the team, Stephanie Ennis. She had a very successful year. The boys team also did a fine job. "It takes a strong and special person to run cross country because it is an individual sport, but also a team sport." Coach Stieber expresses his feeling on cross country. Tom Cook shows this character by succeeding in state, placing 35 of 130. With a new addition to the team, Coach Knetter, was a great source of knowledge for the team. "Cross Country is life. It teaches about how to be an adult, a good adult." What an awesome year from the 2000 Cross Country team. Keep up the good team work!

For this entire year the football team was on a mission to improve. Their mission was a successful one. This year they not only had a better record, but improved in over 30 categories. The boys started off the season on the gridiron with a huge win over Wisconsin Heights. They went on the rest of the year to beat both Baraboo and Nekoosa. The team was in other close games that resulted in losses, including a second half shutout and near upset of the conference champs Mauston. The Chiefs improved season was recognized with ten players receiving all-conference honors.

CHEER FOR THE BEST..WDHS

A cheereader by definition is a person who leads cheers. Well, the cheerleading squad at WDHS did a lot more than that. They went above and beyond what was expected of them to pump up the players and crowd. From their high flying stunts to their amazing tumbling on the ground, this years football cheerleaders worked hard to bring spirit into WDHS. Their goal for the season was to get the crowd more involved in the games to let the players know that their school and community was behind them one-hundred percent.

That goal was accomplished. Everyone did a great job this year in supporting the 2000 football team, of course it did help that we had a few victories. Homecoming, which is always a stressful time for the cheerleaders, turned out to be a lot of fun. Everything went as planned and turned out great. Overall this year's season was a huge success!

The 2000-2001 Basketball Cheerleading Squad made the decision to also become a competition squad, bringing home from competition a first place regional trophy, and a fourth place state trophy. Taking on the responsibility to compete shows a great deal of dedication from the cheerleaders to both the program and the school. They have come a long way in four years!

Boy's Basketball Shoots For Excellence

This years Boy's Basketball team electrified the crowd with their exciting gameplay. Their was never a dull moment during the 2000-'01 season where the Chiefs finished 6-6 in the final year of the current conference, and 12-8 overall. The Chiefs were lead by seniors Johnny Fish and Dustin Schultz. Also stepping up and having big games was junior Travis Hartman and sophomore Jimmy Capelle. Other boys that saw significant playing time include juniors Jared Hinze and Randy Ketelhut and sophomores Carl Kurkowski and Chad Johnson. Some of the highlights of the year were pushing the number two ranked team, Reedsburg, into overtime and home and two overtime victories against the Portage Warriors.

Girls Basketball 2000-2001

"A Turn Around"

The Dells girls basketball team of 2000-2001 has made a great improvement since last year. The girls ended the season on February 20th against Westfield. The game was a heartbreaker due to the loss to Westfield by one point. The girls finished 4th in the conference with Baraboo, Portage, and Reedsburg above them. Seniors, Lindsey Lucke, Tara Wimann, Katie Holzem, Katie Sweeney, and Ryan McFaul all contributed a great amount of effort throughout the season. The members of the varsity squad weren't the only ones who achieved success this year. The Junior Varsity team ended their season with a 18-2 record. Coach Buss is looking forward to a successful season next year.

Striving to be the Best!

Wrestling 2000-2001

The Dells Wrestling Team was full of enthusiasm and had a lot of energy on the mat, with 23 outstanding members this year. "In comparison to the last four years, Dells wrestlers, as a team, have been better than ever, placed higher, and achieved greater feats." Along with Coaches Gary Buhr, Adam Bremer, Coach Brett Steffen was proud of the team. He shared his thoughts about the sport of wrestling, "Wrestling is you vs yourself, you don't have a team to blame: you blame yourself for mistakes.

You, yourself, take responsibility for what happens or take all the glory when you win." The 2000-2001 season included four returning seniors, who did a great job supporting each other and Wisconsin Dells. New Coach, Coach Bremer, who loves wrestling, brought pride to the WDHS spirit. "He was a very nice addition to this year's team," says Coach Steffen. Everyone had goals, they all strived to achieve them and it showed. The Dells Wrestling Team continues to improve each year and always does their best.

CHEER FOR THE WRESTLERS!

This years wrestling cheerleaders worked hard supporting the wrestlers, along with promoting school spirit. The squad members are the biggest fans of the wrestlers and are behind them one hundred percent. Traveling along with them to tournaments gave them a chance that none of the rest of us had to get to know the members of the wrestling team. Also traveling with the team shows a great deal of dedication to not only the cheerleading squad, but also the wrestlers. The cheerleaders never stopped supporting the boys, and for that they have showed how much they really care about getting the fans to support the team and cheer for them as hard as they do.

Dancing Up A Storm!

Chillin' in the stands after pregame!

"Now for your half-time entertainment, the Wisconsin Dells Dance Team..." This is the introduction that the crowds in the gym at WDHS heard at basketball games. The gym buzzed with excitement as the dancers made their way onto the floor. A feeling of energy and excitement filled the atmosphere. The dancers were ready to perform.

The 2000-2001 dance team was composed of three Seniors, three Juniors, eight Sophomores, and two Freshman. The team was led by new Coach Caroyle Kmak and Co-Captains, Senior, Bernadette Starzyk, and Junior, Katrina Kmak. "Dance is really about working together and doing what we like, to dance," said Katrina Kmak.

Focus! Megan has good eye contact!

The Dance Team performed to songs like "Come on Over," "Stronger," and "Nice and Slow".

The dances were choreographed with assistance outside of the team, however, the last dance was choreographed by sophomore, Jill Mattei. "It's great to see the underclassmen step up," said Starzyk. Great job, Dance Team!

The Blades

"Aaron...you can't score from that side of the net!"

This year's hockey club was as up and down as a rollercoaster ride. They started off the year on a great note. They were cruising along with an impressive winning streak, but towards the middle of the season they were plagued with injuries.

They had an impressive tournament showing in LaCrescent, Minnesota winning two out of the three games for the weekend. After that they had some very crucial injuries and the team just never played the same way the rest of the year. Once the original lines for the year got split up due to injury, the team couldn't come together towards the end of the year.

Towards the middle of the year the team survived without some key members of the team and had some good chemistry going into the playoffs. The Blades had a disappointing first round exit to the state playoffs in a 6-1 loss to Sun Prairie. The team faced off against McFarland for the league championship in the last regular season game. McFarland won the game and the Dells and McFarland tied for the Dane County league championship. The Blades ended out the year with a fair showing in their home tournament taking seventh place out of eight teams. Coach Kaminski is looking forward to a very successful season next year for the Blades.

“Extravagant” one-acts!

The Staring Match and Just a Stage He's Going Through both performed at the “Fine Arts Extravaganza” in the Wisconsin Dells Gymnasium. Page Jenny and Mike Michalsky put together The Staring Match; Ania Momot and Diane Effinger directed the other one-act play—Just a Stage He's Going Through.

In The Staring Match, a small town is experiencing a drought and two angels are sent in answer to the town's prayer for rain. One angel is from heaven, the other, from the devil. In Just a Stage He's Going Through, Dwight wakes up in the middle of the night and sees an audience. He goes through his day with no one else seeing what he sees.

“She's an angel of the Lord”... or is she? Reverend (played by Drew Davis) discusses the “white” phenomenon with Will (played by Mike Gawel).

A doubtful Linus (played by Josh Spychalla) talks to his wife Mattie Jane (played by Casey Hoth) about his thoughts concerning the two angels.

White and Black (played by Jamie Murray and Katrina Kmak) try to convince the townspeople that they are an angel from God in The Staring Match.

"Monday's is always like this for me... 'course, so is February...!" Jon Plouffe as; THE JAZZ MAN!

Dwight pleads for therapy, and Sigmund Freud obliges his plea! Frank Woodruff and Mike Lopes perform their comedy routine in Just a Stage He's Going Through!

"Bus people for life." Adrienne Newman, Jon Plouffe, Leo Almeida, Amber Fischer, and Lena Spargo listen to Frank as he tries to get them to see the audience that is watching him.

A WEEK TO REMEMBER

This year, Homecoming 2000 was a time to remember. This year Homecoming was a huge success and we owe a great deal of that success to the chairman Ryan McFaul and the rest of Student Council. Throughout the week, there was a variety of different events that took place. Monday was Pajama Day, and also the window painting day. Tuesday was Senior Citizens Day, and the Boys Volleyball game. Wednesday was Celebrity Day, and Hall Decorating after school. Thursday was Crazy Hair/Hat Day, and float building after school. Powderpuff was also on Thursday night. Friday was Color Day and the parade, and the football game. We concluded the week with the dance on Saturday night.

One Starry Night

.....WDHS "Reaches for the Stars"

This year Homecoming 2000, like always, was a time to remember. Homecoming has always been a night full of memories to cherish, and this year was just that. Saturday the 30th brought the event that everyone had been waiting for--the dance. When everyone arrived, the gym was decorated perfectly thanks to Homecoming chairman Ryan McFaul. Sparkling silver and midnight blue shined all over. To start it all off we had Grand March, where each Senior Couple would meet to walk through the silver and blue balloon arch. Next came Homecoming Court. Court included Homecoming King and Queen Alex Dominguez and Melody Tripp, Andy Weber and Trisha Jensen, Jeremy Romanelli and Lindsey Lucke, Joey Leute and Ryan McFaul, Abe Haupt and Tara Wimann, Jeremiah Barton and Courtney Peterson, Todd Hamm and Bernadette Starzyk, and last but not least Johnny Fish and Katie Sweeney. Two reps from the other classes were on court too. "Reach for the Stars" was a perfect theme as we had stars dangling from the ceiling. The theme this year did a good job defining each class. The seniors won the Spirit Stick, as their spirit stayed the strongest throughout Homecoming Week. Everyone did their best, tried hard, and really tried to "Reach for the Stars."

Mr. Hoehn is fresh out of college in the Tech Ed. Department. He graduated from UW-Stout in December of '99 with a technical education major. This year he is teaching Metals 1 & 2, Constuction, Building Trades, Mass Productions, Graphic Communications, and Electronic Communications. Also, he is a line coach for the varsity football team, as well as freshman defensive coordinator. His hobbies are hunting, fishing, and any outdoors activity. Mr. Hoehn is engaged and is to be married in July.

Mr. Grove is a new teacher in the Social Studies department. He graduated from Viterbo College in December of 1999 with a broadfield social studies major. Mr. Grove will be a JV girls basketball coach this season. He is teaching World History, Asian Studies, Sociology, American History, Social Problems, and World History 2. He came to the Dells because it was a good job opportunity and because there was a basketball position. His hobbies include following politics and current events, golf, and watching sports.

Mr. Rohling was a graduate of UW-River Falls in 1991. He is teaching grades 9-12 physical education with Mrs. Fisk. He is also teaching the "0 Hour" weight training class. This past season he was an assistant varsity football coach. He will also be an assistant basketball coach, as well as being assistant weight room coordinator. Mr. Rohling taught for eight years at Glenwood HS in Illinios. He is married to his wife Stacy, and they have two children, a seven year old daughter and a two year old son.

Mr. Bremer is the new Drivers Education teacher. He is a Dells graduate from the class of '95. He then went to Lawrence University and graduated in 1999 with a psychology major. Mr. Bremer is certified to also teach social studies and psychology. At Lawrence University he wrestled for three years and this year will be an assistant wrestling coach. He says that he is glad to be back in the Dells and it is fun to be here. Mr. Bremer also has a baby daughter.

Mr. Bundy is a 1986 graduate of UW-Stout with a business administration degree. He just recently got his education certificate in marketing. This is his first teaching job and he teaches Accounting and Information Processing at the high school. At the middle school he teaches Keyboarding and Discovery. He is the defensive coordinator for the varsity football team and he played football at UW-Stout. He enjoys golfing, fishing, and spending time with his two kids.

Foreign Exchange Students

Claudia Steinau joined the WDHS family this year from Germany. "Wisconsin Dells may not be the common American town, but its great, I really like it here." She misses some kinds of food, mostly bread, fresh bread, as well as her independence because she needs to get a ride for everything she wants to do. Claudia agrees that there are a lot of things that different like attitudes. "Americans have a different attitude on certain things. Even just your everyday things like light switches and TVs." Germany isn't has cold as it is in Wisconsin. People in Germany are less open. While attending WDHS she apart of the Art Club, and performs during half time at Basketball games as a dance team member. "Thank you alot to all the people I know here. I am going to miss you so much."

Annika Schuett also joins WDHS also from Germany. " Wisconsin Dells is fun! I like it!" She says. She misses her family and German food and candy. She agrees that the temperatures between Wisconsin and Germany are similar. "It is not as cold in the winter or as hot as in the summer. Plus, Germany doesn't have as much snow. Rules and how school itself works is different than in Germany." Annika says that the language is very different. "Not many Americans know how to speak German." Attending WDHS, Annika has been a part Cross Country and has made many good friends. "Thanks to all my friends and the people who helped and listened."

Cristina Villegas joins WDHS from the other half of the world; Equador, South America. "Wisconsin Dells was an interesting place for me after I learned a bit about the history. Its a pretty 'cool' town," She says. She misses seafood, her parents and her sisters. SHE has a very close family. She misses being able to speak Spanish all of the time. Equador is small country filled amazing places. While attending WDHS she is involved in Art Club. She would like to thank "Wisconsin Dells for opening the doors for me and giving me the opportunity to have a school year that I will never forget!"

This year, Superbowl XXXV was hosted in Tampa Bay, Florida. The Ravens and the New York Giants played in the SuperBowl, Ravens won 34-7.

Below: The PT Cruiser is the new Motor Trend 2001 Car of the Year.
Center: George Bush won the the 2001 election running against Al Gore. The election of 2001 has been the closest election in history!!

Right: California experienced a huge power shortage, when a horrible pacific storm passed through. California had many black outs, and their power reserves were once as low as 1.5%.

Right: The famous rapper Eminem was up for four grammys this year. Some organizations have been protesting Eminem's lyrics, however. They feel the rapper's lyrics are very violent.

Juliet Roberts has recently won the Best Actress Award for a drama. Her role as Erin Brockovich helped her win this Golden Globe Award.

Tom Hanks received the Best Actor for a drama. He has recently starred in the new action, Cast Away, which helped him receive this award.

A Year to Remember...

Top Left: This year, the Olympics were held in Sydney, Australia. The biggest upset was when US wrestler Rulan Gardner defeated Russian Alexandre Kereillen. Alexandre hadn't lost a match since 1987.

Far Left: In baseball, Alex Rodriguez signed the biggest contract ever in sports history. He signed a $252 million contract for ten years.

From the Editor's...

From Bernadette Starzyk: So much time and effort is put into producing a book that represents different things for different people. As Editor, I challenged myself to bring a positive attitude into room 106 everyday. Through computer glitches and picture mishaps, this has been one wild journey. Fifth hour was like no other. There are a few thank you's that need to be addressed. Thank you to the staff of the 00-01 Arrow. You have been wonderful and should be extremely proud of this memoir. Your positive attitude and hard work are represented greatly in this book. Mr. Michalsky, thank you for all of the dedication, millions of laughs, and all of the extra time that you yourself have put in. You certainly made class more interesting. The faculty, administration, and student body, thank you for your continued support of this awesome production. To all those I have not mentioned, Thank you!

As the year ends, and so does my message, I want to challenge you, the community of WDHS, especially the graduating class of 2001, to follow your hearts, strive for your dreams, and always REACH FOR THE STARS.

From Tessa Hebbring: This year's yearbook staff has really dug deep into the everyday activities of the students at WDHS. The students were very cooperative and asked for help when they needed it. I'm glad Bernadette was there when I wasn't due to sports and being an advertising agent with Danny Holzem.

Everything that is done in the class has a twist and a turn we have to get through, but in the end all of the hard work is worth it! I was in Publications last year and I didn't really get to say much because of all of the seniors, but this year, as Co-Editor, I can voice my opinions and make the book better in ways that it wasn't before. It has been quite an experience and I would recommend the class to anyone!

Michalsky's Ode to the Class of 2001: Well, all of you fine young ladies and gentlemen have made it. The end of your high school career is at hand. Goodbyes are never easy, but they are especially hard in this case. The Class of 2001 will always hold a special place in my heart. After all, we came in together in 1997. My first year at WDHS was your first year in high school (I'm not sure who learned more that year). I truly feel like I am a part of your graduation class, and I will miss you immensely. Believe it or not, I actually enjoyed waking up in the morning and coming in to teach you, coach you, talk to you, and joke around with you. Take on the world with a vengeance and remember Michalsky loves you guys.
