"Ever After" Prom 2003

We opened our eyes to a beautiful day,
so happy things were going our way.
The decor was enchanting, our dinner now done,
we entered our world, full of magic and fun.
All of us dancing, oh what a sight,
the music played on, 'til the stroke of midnight.
The night was filled with memories and laughter, we'll remember our prom for "Ever After.."

Aloha Paradise- Homecoming Week 2003

This year's homecoming was full of exciting events. From toga day to the intense boys volleyball game, this week was full of competition, spirit, and unforgettable events. On Tuesday night, the senior boys managed to pull off an on-the-edge-of-your-seat victory. The sophomores were a big help when they won the cheering competition. Thursday night was the powderpuff game, with another amazing win for the seniors. The bonfire followed girls' powderpuff to get everyone pumped for the game. At Friday's assembly, the competing stopped, and the togetherness began. Between these events, were activities such as gym decorating, window painting, float building, and hallway decorating. Win or lose, all of the classes showed lots of school spirit.

Friends forever!

The Student Council worked very hard to prepare an Aloha Paradise after a long, stressful, but fun week. Between the waterfall backdrop and the tiki hut, or the Hawaiian flower lei's and the sunset background, this was a great Homecoming Dance. And who could forget Kenny Roberts, Matt Peterson, Garin Gavinski, Topher Holzem, and Kevin Hall all dressing up as members of the Village People to perform Y.M.C.A. Mike Showalter, the D.J., did a very good job this year in having a great mix of songs. He even gave a shout out to the Senior girls by playing, "She Thinks My Tractor's Sexy" by Kenny Chesney, and "Stronger" by Britney Spears. Aside from the music and gettin' down with your bad self, everyone can remember how the night brought every person closer together to create a memorable event.

We present Jake Berger and Casandra Nachreiner as our 2003 Homecoming King and Queen!

2003 Softball

The 2003 softball season was one of the best seasons the girls have had in a few years. New pitching and a hard work ethic helped the Chiefs stride towards their goal of a successful season. It was a rough beginning for the young Lady Chiefs as they lost seven of their first eight games; however, they roared back, winning 11 of their next 14 games to finish the season at a very respectable 12-11. The team's improvement and dedication accounted for their rapid rise in the conference. The main thing the ladies wanted to accomplish was teamwork and just to have a good time. And that is exactly what happened!!!!!!

The 2003 Varsity baseball team was filled with a lot of uncertainties, as the team graduated six seniors from the year before. Looking to take on the challenge was a strong group of 11 seniors, led by pitchers Josh Baysinger and Jimmy Capelle. The senior dividends as the Chiefs started six games. The team went on to also set several school records, at 17. The Chiefs season ended in tough 3-1 loss to Westfield, accolades kept coming for the after the season ended. Yuri Josh Baysinger were selected 1st and Andrew Hess made the 2nd Michalsky stated, "This was the worked with, and they formed the best team I've ever seen in high school. Much of the praise goes to the leadership of a great senior class. They were definitely a class act, and it was a privilege to work with them" The team will have its work cut out for it in 2004 as they need to replace six of the nine starters again.

"The 2003 WDHS Golf Team was young and inexperienced in the sense that we only returned two letter winners, (Tofson and Rector) and lost the conference MVP in graduate Nick Schulz. The Chiefs had a good year finishing 4th in the conference and competing at many of the invite tournaments."

The Dells Dolphin season was a big splash!! They hosted the 2003 Tri-County Conference Swim Meet. Casey Preissel (individual medley and backstroke, breast stroke, free style), and Lisa Clemens (individual medley and backstroke, butterfly), took home awards for the Dells. Dain Tofson (backstroke, butterfly, free style), Grant Keller (mens butterfly), Kevin Hall, and Michael Gavin made up a threatening boys team for the first time in a generation. It was a great season for all involved. Casey Preissel was a part of the Wisconsin Senior Swim Championship and had a top 10 finish which landed her a spot on Team Wisconsin.

Congrats after a big race, the fans, coach, and swimmers celebrate.

After a terrific 2002 football season that saw the Chiefs make the playoffs for the first time in 15 years, there were a lot of unknowns for the 2003 squad. After graduating five selections to the all-conference SCC squad, the team was forced to regroup with younger, less experienced players. This inexperience was shown early in the year with losses team kept learning from their week to week. The players hard together toward the end of the year back games against Westfield and be on its way to three in a row when runner up Poynette. The Chiefs twice in the first quarter, taking a left in the 2nd quarter the Chiefs were stopped on downs at the Poynette came back in the second half to capture the game, but the Chiefs proved they could play with the top athletes in the state. Postseason conference awards were given to Aaron Johnson, 2nd team running back and honorable mention linebacker; Darin Wimann, 2nd team defensive line; Jason Rector, honorable mention quarterback; and Garin Gavinski, honorable mention offensive line. The 2004 football season holds a lot of promise for the Chiefs as they return numerous starters.

Fast Girls and Boys Have Good Times

This years Cross Country team was a new beginning. The team had to build a strong team and finish out with a successful season. This years team did exceptionally well having three members recognized for All-Conference runners: Alissa Nelson was the only girl from the girl's team and Quinton Hudack and Matt Fults for the boys team. Leading the way for the girls team was Alissa Nelson and Quinton Hudack for the boys team. At the end of the season many were recognized for their success. Most Valuable Player-Alissa Nelson and Kyler Westerfeldt, Leadership-Kassandra Holzem and Matt Fults, Most Improved- Sara Wolner and Brian Piotrowski. Each member had a great season and looks forward to next year.

Cyndy Collins coached the Chiefs to an awesome season this year. They had high hopes to beat Lodi, so their theme this year was Mission: Possible. Even though it didn't work out to be that, they still had a great season going 11-2 (with their only two losses being to Lodi). Unlike last year, they weren't a senior heavy team with only four returning letter winners, but that didn't hold 'em down! The fans who never missed a single game (Jared, Jesse, Ben, and Zack) or tournament certainly helped the Chiefs gain each victory. Way to go, girls!

Rowdy boys at Culver's.

Clueless?

The 2003 soccer team, led by Captains: A.J. Fischer and Erik Catherman, was much more than just a soccer team, it was a young team that was successful. With something to prove, the WDHS soccer team finished off 9-6-1, sweeping most of the teams that stood in their way. Throughout their season they struggled with many falls as they lost to less experienced teams that they would turn around and later defeat in the season. The soccer team finished off their season in a SCC tournament that they would win to keep their title for the fourth year in a row. Seniors Ekin Gunel and goalkeeper Wojteck Pulchny will be missed for their outstanding efforts towards the soccer team. This year was very successful and we look forward to a great season next year.

HOCKEY

With a Mauston-heavy team, the Chiefs had six key players: Ben Schultz, Jesse Vanderbilt, Travis Turbett, Helen Dixon, Kalen Mace, and J.J. Haupt. They all contributed to a specific position, and some played more than one.

During the Chiefs first year in the WIAA, they ended up with a record of 8-7-2. With the WIAA being more challenging, the only downfall was the decrease in number of games played.

In the upcoming years we hope to see the hockey team win their first WIAA State Championship. Go Chiefs!

Wrestling Continues Building the Future!

The 2003-2004 wrestling team was two points away from a winning record but had to settle for a 5-6 dual meet season that provided the team with a variety of highs and lows. With a 1-5 conference record, the Chiefs picked up wins in non-conference and tournament action. Losing athletes to injury and illness at critical times of the year may have set the team back but did not stop the individuals from having success. Quinton Hudack and Lantz Douglas advanced to the sectional meet, a tournament that did not include the Chiefs a year ago. In addition to post season success, the Chiefs were able to see improvement throughout the lineup with eleven wrestlers improving records from the previous year and four having 20 or more wins on the season. "I was happy with the improvement in our program this year. The seniors will be hard to replace but they have helped to prepare the younger wrestlers for the challenge. I am excited about the future of WD wrestling because the foundation for success has been built," said Coach Ryan.

The cheerleaders at their best- cheer camp 2003

The basketball cheerleaders demonstrating school spirit during the Christmas assembly.

The famous "Pancake," Got Milk?

We got spirit, yes we do; we got spirit, how 'bout you?
 This year's cheerleaders did an awesome job of promoting school spirit and keeping the crowd enthusiastic. With several new additions to the squads, the girls were very anxious to start the season. They encouraged and supported the teams throughout the year. The girls went to a cheerleading camp in Wisconsin Rapids over the summer to improve their skills and learn new cheers, stunts, and dances. Each season was filled with good memories, laughs, challenges, and great accomplishments. Through the rough times and the fun times the girls always came out with smiles. The girls were very dedicated and always gave their best effort. "Anybody can lift weights, cheerleaders lift people."

Warming up the smiles!

We'll be gone, but not forgotten- your spirit cheerleaders

OUR SPIRIT SHOWS

"Cheerleading is a rivalry, the competition makes you strong. Cheerleading is reaching out to comfort a sister who is sad and defending each other in good and bad times."

We hope you dance!

"Is it worth it, let me work it. I put flip it and reverse

it!" -Missy Elliot

CAST AND CREW GONE WILD!

WISCONSIN DELLS TOOK A LEAP WITH THE PLAY THIS YEAR, AND THE STUDENTS WHO BECAME A PART OF THE JOURNEY WERE UP TO THE CHALLENGE. THE ENTIRE CAST PUT FORTH GREAT AMOUNTS OF ENERGY IN TACKLING THIS PRODUCTION. KARI DOHERTY MADE QUEEN HECUBA HER OWN LIVING, BREATHING CHARACTER. A STRONG, CONFIDENT WOMAN STRUGGLING WITH TREMENDOUS LOSS. ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE CHORUS TOOK RELATIVELY SPARSE LINES AND CREATED POWERFUL, ENGAGING PEOPLE AND WITH SIMPLE BODY LANGUAGE AND FACIAL EXPRESSIONS CONVEYED VOLUMES ABOUT WHAT IT MEANS TO BE LEFT IN THE WAKE OF DESTRUCTION. KYLE ANDERSON SHAPED HIS GREEK MESSENGER INTO A COMPLEX MAN IN A TERRIBLE AND LOATHSOME JOB WHO MUST DO WHAT HE MUST DO. ALL THE CAST AND CREW ROSE ABOVE AND BEYOND WHAT IS NORMALLY SEEN ON A HIGH SCHOOL STAGE. WE DIDN'T DRAW HUGE NUMBERS WITH OUR GREEK TRAGEDY, BUT THOSE WHO SAW THE TROJAN WOMEN I THINK WOULD AGREE, THAT IT WAS A PRODUCTION THAT LEFT AN IMPRESSION FOR WHICH ENGAGING FORMS OF ART STRIVE.

WHAT'S MY LINE?

WHAT DOES SHE SMELL?

DON'T MESS WITH ME!

POWERFUL.

Arrow 2004 Publications

The 2004 yearbook had a definite feminist touch to it as 16 of the 17 members were female. As you can see, however, the lack of testosterone did not hurt the creativity or the resourcefulness of this year's staff and its editor, Jordan Yost. The dedication to producing a great yearbook was clearly evident, and I think I speak for the students when I say it was a lot of fun also. Although, it did take a while to get used to hearing how hot Kenny Chesney was (Steph and Tierney had their own fan club) or who would marry Prince William (Ashley Netz apparently has dubs), stress was at a minimum thanks to all the humor. Hee Haw. That is all!

Top row: Brittany Bilbert, Olivia Szpanski, Ashley Netz, Alisha Nelson, Kim Hoenecke.
Middle: Holly Sharpee, Stephanie Zapuchlak, Erin Scully, Mr. Michalsky, Jordan Yost, Cassandra Nachreiner, Tierney Dickman, Stephanie Steele, Bottom: Ashley Brackman, Katie Peyton.

Smile pretty, girls!!

Always working hard on chit-chat!

Jordan, open your eyes!

Ashley never fails to lift someone's spirits!

Creating the yearbook spreads, including this page, really put the importance of our yearbook into perspective. Through this class, we obtained knowledge and were left with many hilarious stories to tell!

A word from our editor: This years publications class was a lot of fun. None of us had any experience in producing a yearbook whatsoever, which made it even more interesting.

I enjoyed being the editor very much. The job was stressful and hard work at times, but overall it was an awesome experience. Also, working with Mr. Michalsky, made the job even more entertaining.

A final word to Mr. Michalsky and the publications class, "That is all." -Jordan Yost umm...when is the page due?

16 girls, 1 guy... What are the odds?
