KENNETH PLATT

September 25, 1932—June 4, 1948

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1949 are dedicating our year book, The Arrow, to our classmate Kenneth Platt, who lost his life June 4, 1948.

Kenny was born in Dell Prairie on September 25, 1932. He attended the Gibson Graded School from grades one to eight. He was confirmed in the Trinity Lutheran Church.

Kenny was an intelligent person who always had a smile for everyone he came in contact with. Everyone knew and liked him.

Besides his subjects in school, he played tuba in the band, belonged to the F. F. A., and was in the chorus one year.

US 49ERS

Class History

Shake that chalk-dust out of your eyes, students, and take a good look at the Class of '49.

We, the class of '49, entered high school in September 1945 as green as the grass under our feet and the leaves over our heads.

As our Freshman officers we chose Bob Fulton for our president, assisted by "Hot-Rod" Loofboro; Donna Stickfort was treasurer, and "Tex" Kneubuhler, secretary. Our advisors were Miss Dobson and Mr. Weigel.

The following September we entered as mighty Sophomores, much more intelligent and poised than the year before. Our officers we elected for this year were Bob Procknow, president; good old "Tex" Kneubuhler as vice-president; and Dorothy Weber as secretary and treasurer. As our big representative to the Student Council we elected Bob Wick. We sponsored a lot of dances during this year in order to earn money for our prom.

With the help of Rockoff's giant magnet, we hauled our profits to the mint. Our advisors this year were Mr. Patterson and Mr. Reineking.

History Cont'd

In our Junior year we really made history. With the help of Miss Joosten and Mr. Reineking we settled that all important question, "Who is going to be the prom king?" After several hectic class meetings we announced the results: Bob Spaude, president; Dorisanne Herrick, vice president; and Jean Wanderer as the secretary and treasurer, (it sure helped to get out of study hall, didn't it Jean?) The first big problem was the prom theme. After many meetings we selected "Chinatown." Bob Spaude selected Dorothy Weber to reign as queen.

Our class officers for the Senior year were "Hot-Rod" Loofboro, president; Verna Leege, vice president; Elaine Kimball, secretary and treasurer. Howard Rockoff elected representative to the student council.

We had our Christmas Ball December 28th. It was a big success.

We graduated May 26th and now we leave, where, no one knows.

*Dear Jeff -
Are you still mad at me for what I did in English that day? I'm sorry.
Joan.*

Wills

I, Joan Anderson, leave my lariat to Harriet to roam the wide open range.

I, Maynard Anderson, leave my two wheels.

I, Lester Arnold, leave, and I just got here.

I, John Bartkus, leave for Tildon Tech. I can't stand girls.

I, Christena Christensen, leave my quite studios nature to Freddy Steinmetz.

I, Goldwin Christensen, leave my tuba to some windy Freshman.

I, Harvey Christensen. leave my shyness to Red Alfred.

I, Sidney Dorow, leave to shock corn — shocking isn't it?

I, Lyle Ebsen leave — because what, I graduated.

I, Mary Farrell, leave the school bus to go on without me.

I, Bob Fulton, leave my mechanical ability to Reed Austin.

I, Dorisanne Herrick, leave my collections of jokes to Clyde Thornoerg and Kenny Foster.

I, Nancy Howland, leave my buttons and beaus to Margie Kerwin.

I, Nancy Iverson, leave my sketches to trace a man.

I, Donna Jean Kaiser, leave for the office to keep up my correspondence with Henry.

I, Hans Kneubuhler, leave my whiskers to John Dixon.

I, Rita Kerrigan, leave with Eddy, to keep him away from red heads.

I, Elaine Kimball, leave all my slumber party memories to Lee "Digger" Fedderly.

I, Shirley Landt, leave my musical ability to Freda Greyslak.

Wills Cont'd

I, Norman Leege, leave all the whiskers that have been left to me, to anyone who wants them.

I, Verna Leege, leave for Kentucky by the way of the Panama Canal.

I, Victor Levy, leave without Bonnie, believe it or not.

I, Eddy Loofboro, leave, but there's still a Loofboro to carry on.

I, Alvin Miner, leave my feathers to "Chief" (Mr.) Reineking, because he's always on the warpath.

I, Duane Platt, leave my ability to drive to Charlotte Grieves.

I, Steven Powell, leave school, and I am glad of it.

I, Bob Procknow, leave, with Nancy — of course.

I, Lynn Rowarge, leave, with my motor bike.

I, Howard Rockoff, leave with the boys for a "hot" game of pinochle.

I, Norbert Squires, leave English as far behind as possible.

I, Louise Stettin, leave my class ring to anyone who'll replace it with a diamond.

I, Donna Stickfort, leave my modesty to Ethyl Wagner.

I, Thomas Tucker, leave my dancing ability to Darrel Thompson.

I, Beverly Walker, leave for Baraboo.

I, Jean Wanderer, leave my chemistry notes to Jean Drollinger — she will need them when I am not around.

I, Dorothy Weber, leave my baton twirling ability to Lu Crist.

I, Bob Wick, leave my curly hair to anyone who can't afford a toni.

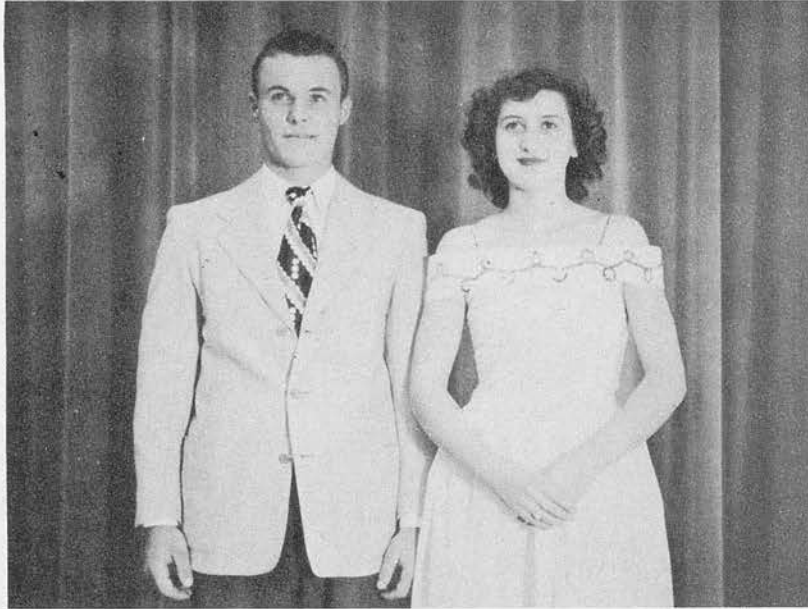

Junior Prom

Bob Spaude

Dorothy Weber

After much debate, the class of '49 selected "Chinatown" as the theme of our April prom.

The highlight of the evening came when Patty Wolfram and Duane Jacobson, dressed as Chinese children, marched across the floor to the music of "Chinatown." They presented the crown of white carnations and red roses to the king, Bob Spaude, who in turn presented it to his queen, Dorothy Weber. The king and queen then led the Grand March across the floor, followed by their chosen court of honor.

With the help of our class advisors, Miss Joosten and Mr. Reineking, and our own "Howie" Rockoff acting as chairman, we can proudly report that our prom was a huge success.

Prophecies

Joan Anderson is now running — keep running Joan!

Maynard Anderson is now sole owner of his father's car.

Lester Arnold is now editor-in-chief of the Dells Events.

John Bartkus is now running for senator under the name of "Honest John Bartkus."

Christena Christensen is now running in competition with Dorothy Dix with her new editorial "Advice To The Lovelorn," published daily in the New York Times.

Goldwin Christensen has just received the Pulitzer Prize for his famous novel "The Sandburr and I."

Harvey Christensen is now editor-in-chief of the Christensen Monitor.

Sidney Dorow, better known as "Fido," has just moved to Loganville for Lydia.

Lyle Ebsen has just published his book entitled "Love at First Sight in Ten Easy Lessons."

Mary Farrel has just been voted "Miss Shy" of America.

Robert Fulton has just found his life ambition, riding the waves — in the Navy of course.

Dorisanne Herrick is now head of a button factory — she seems to be still looking for the ones she lost.

Nancy Howland has finally settled down to one Shorty Hammerly.

Nancy Iverson is now living in Chicago again accompanied by her ever loving "Prock."

Donna Jean Kaiser is now a private secretary — can you guess where? Of course, at the office.

Hans Kneubuhler is now head surgeon at Mayo Brothers Clinic, he always was a cut up in school.

FLASH! Rita Kerrigan has just returned from a hunting expedition in Alaska; she brought Eddy back alive.

Elaine Kimball just struck gold in California and has built a large estate with the aid of Verna and Dorisanne.

Shirley Landt, following in the footsteps of her father, has become President of The Dairy Association of America.

Prophecies Cont'd

Norman Leege, after using Doc. Kneubuhler's growing pills has grown to the tremendous height of seven feet three inches.

Verna Leege is now teaching at the Gibson school.

Victor Levy is now a noted orchestra leader with the theme song "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean."

Edwin Loofboro is now a big Alaska Typhoon. You may remember him as a big bag of wind.

Alvin Miner has just been kicked out of the Mill for the 100th time. No MINERS allowed.

Duane Platt will soon be president of the new, sensational Platt-mobile Company.

Steven Powell is now a very successful farmer raising "cain" — that doesn't sound like Steve.

Bob Procknow has just completed his latest best seller "The Ag and I."

Congressman Lynn Robarge has promised to put a motor-bike in every garage.

Howard Rockoff is now a big steel magnet in Pennsylvania.

Norbert Squires has just become famous as the "silver-tongued-erator" of Lake Delton.

Louise Stettin is now head of the L & E restaurant, better known as Louise Eats.

(1990) After working in the office while Katie was on vacation, Donna Lou Stickfort has just retired on an old age pension.

Thomas Tucker is now a highly successful salesman selling tooth-picks.

Beverly Walker is now head waitress at the K. & G. Restaurant.

Jean Wanderer has just founded a hospital for students suffering from overwork.

Dorothy Weber is now working with the Powers modeling company — her rise to fame came through the popularity poll.

Robert Wick is now a candle stick maker.

This year, as in previous years, we have pulled through with high standards. The main issues of the year were the selecting of class rings and preparing for our prom, "Mardi Gras." John Dixon was active as prom chairman and Dale, "Googie" Lowe was our king.

Well, I guess there is no use of my rambling on. See next year's annual for the final chapter in our success story.

Now it came to pass in September 1948, that the tribe of Nineteen Fifty-one assembled to cast their lots to see who would be their king. The lot fell upon Kenneth Foster, for he was wiser than all men. The King's Chief Counsellor, Rita Steiner; the Scribe and Treasurer, Joyce Wampler; and the Counsellor of the tribe, Arno Kleimenhagen. Then there came a summons from the king to all of his people saying to gather themselves for battle to make their mark in the Hall of Fame.

Hey! Wait a minute. Don't go on being ignorant. You must learn the facts of the Freshman Class.

We have a grand total of sixty-one, consisting of athletes, musicians, and one or two geniuses (of which no one has ever heard for some unknown reason). Some of us are brilliant, others are —well, we won't discuss those. On the whole our class is nothing to shout, or cry, about. I guess we're just about average. Just starting our struggle through the four years of "happy toil" with our teachers and classmates to suffer along with us. We hope to someday, reach the fame" of our upper-classmen.

SPRINKLES

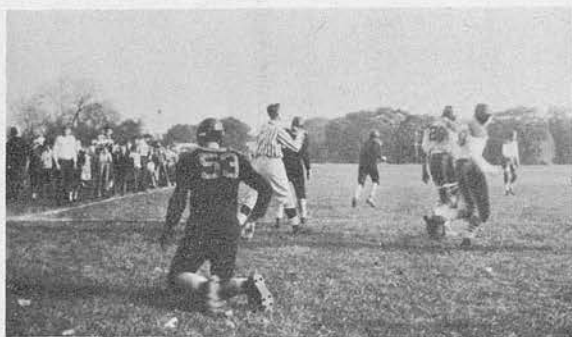

Dear Lyle,
We've had a lot of fun this year
playing softball.
I'm sorry you couldn't have been here longer to be here in the future.

Football

The football season started with a slow burning fuse that exploded when it reached Monroe whom we beat 6 to 0, our only great offensive game of the season. Most of the games were played in the rain with players and spectators both getting soaked many times during the course of our games. Although there were not many wins, the games were followed by quite a large crowd. There were few injuries and none of them too serious. We look forward to a very good season next year.

Homecoming

The Homecoming this year was held Oct. 21st, and the 22nd. The main event was the snake dance led by the band which wound its way through the business district of town. The parade ended up at the school house where a bonfire was burning and by this fire our usual homecoming program was held. It consisted of speeches by our faculty and ex-football captains of past games.

The following afternoon, Friday, we played (and lost) our big game with Richland Center. Score 6-0.

The F. F. A. sponsored the Homecoming dance. The queen, Donna Kay Patterson and her court of honor, Dorothy Weber, Rita Kerrigan, Ethyl Wagner, and Joyce Hacker, were presented, and the king, Jimmy Lorenzen, crowned his queen. The ending of the dance concluded our 1948 Homecoming.

 Marston, H. Plumb, S. Larkin, M. Leege, M. Winnes.

The band this year was made up of 43 members, who were under the direction of Mr. Bixby.

We were a little late in getting started this year, because we were lacking a director. However, Mr. Bixby came to our rescue and put us on our feet again.

There were many vacancies in the band because of the students who graduated last year. These were filled by some "B" band members.

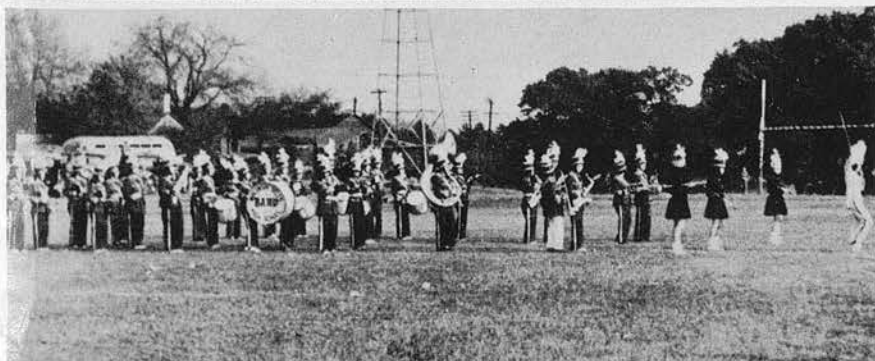

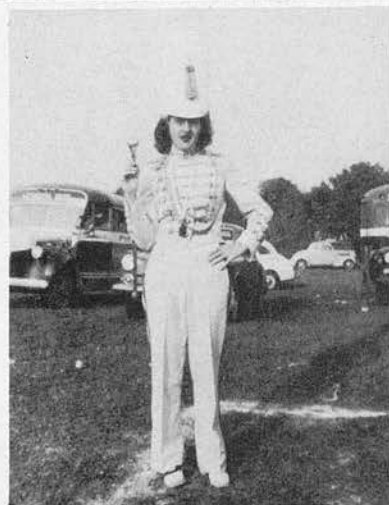

The band took part in several of the programs at school. We also played at basketball and football games.

A "German Band" comprised of Hans Kneubuhler, Goldwin Christensen, Rose Gussel, and Homer Plumb, was active at programs and student activities.

This year the band met only twice a week, but we made good use of the periods that we did have to practice.

The band made a fine appearance at the music festival at Portage where we entered Class "C" in competition.

We shall always cherish in our hearts memories of the wonderful times we had playing in the band.

 Row 4. H. Plumb, H. Rihn, J. Dixon, R. Fulton, J. Priester, L. Robarge, T. Stanton, C. Burwell, D. Thompson, V. Levy.

This year the A Cappella Choir was again under the direction of Mrs. Fulton.

Several new members have joined our ranks, and as a result we have witnessed a shortage of capes. We met on Monday and Wednesday afternoons to hold rehearsals. The choir participated in several of the events held during the school year. These included the Christmas program and the annual music festival which was held at Portage. Here we entered class B competition and did a very creditable piece of work.

Row 3. H. Larkin, D. Thompson, L. Crist, A. Brown, A. Fisher, B. Burris, L. Wegner, R. Peterson.

The Dramatics Club is again under the able direction of Miss Johnson. There was such a large turnout it had to be divided into two groups. The "A" group meets on Mondays and Wednesdays, the "B" groups meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Miss Johnson sent for several one act and three act plays to be given in front of the Dramatics Club and possibly the student body.

The outstanding project of the Dramatics Club was the Christmas pageant.

Row 3: E. Kimball, Miss Lehman, J. Wick.

A Commercial Club was much in demand this year, so Miss Lehman organized one.

Our officers were as follows: President, Dorisanne Herrick; Vice-President Romana Lemke; and Secretary-Treasurer, Donna Stickfort.

The purpose of our club was to be helpful to the teachers and school as typists and secretaries. We learned how to operate the mimeograph and the ditto machine.

Photo Club

The Camera Club was started by Mr. Parrish the first semester. Our first meetings dealt with teaching us the various parts of a camera, and how to develop and print a picture. After we learned these things we developed and printed pictures ourselves. Then we criticized our mistakes and tried to improve them. This club had lots of fun together and our motto was "Things develop faster in a darkroom."

F. H. A.

Our Future Homemakers of America Chapter had 41 members this year with Mrs. Hitchcock as our faculty advisor.

Helen Christensen was our President, with Christena Christensen as Vice-President, Mary Farrell as Secretary, and Lou Rae Voros as Treasurer.

We meet the first Friday of each month. Some of us took part in an interesting F. H. A. Rally at Beaver Dam last fall. We worked at the football stands and sold Christmas cards and pencils to finance our club.

F. F. A.

This year there are 44 boys in the chapter. In order to belong to the F. F. A. the boy must be enrolled in vocational agriculture, have a farm project, and be able to recite the F. F. A. Creed.

Some of the activities of our chapter this year are: supervised farm projects, sponsoring the Homecoming Dance, officers leadership training, meeting at Hillsboro, Parent and Son Banquet, and playing basketball with other chapters.

School Daze Staff

So many students registered for newspaper this year, that it was necessary to take a test to weed out the poor ones. With the cream of the crop it was expected that we would go far with our newspaper this year, (and we did).

Bob Fulton was editor this year and Mr. Reineking was our advisor.

The annual this year, wonderful as it may be, attributes its greatness to Hans Kneubuhler, Editor; Shirley Larkin, Co-Editor; Bob Procknow, Business Manager; George Neuzil, Asst. Business Manager; and Miss Fremlin, our advisor.

Other influential characters also responsible for publication of the annual were:

- Mottoes, Wills and Prophecies Rita Kerrigan, Howard Rockoff, and Verna Leege
- Faculty Section and Dedication Donna Stickfort and Elaine Kimball
- Calendar and Activities Section Jean Wanderer and Dorisanne Herrick
- Sports Section Eddy Loofboro and Bob Procknow
- Typists Joan Anderson and Beverly Walker
- Blackouts and Layouts Steve Powell, Louise Stettin and Donna Kaiser
- Photographers Stuart Phelps and Shirley Landt
