History

In the fall of 1938 a group of 42 freshmen enrolled in the Wisconsin Dells High School. In comparison with the usual run of freshmen they were not quite as dumb or quite as green. It took the first part of the year for them to show their ingenuity, and initiative, however. The freshmen class officers were: President, Jim Tucker; Vice President, Duaine Counsell; Secretary-treasurer, Allen Dearborn. The only social get-together sponsored by the freshmen during the year was an outstanding school party. The entertainment was clever, and they succeeded in getting back at the seniors who had previously initiated them.

The next year found them mighty sophomores. They were an essential part of the school then. The class officers were: President, Betty Ekberg; Vice President, Harry Weber; Secretary-treasurer, Gordon Foster. The best party in their school history was held this year. The theme was "Dew Drop Inn." The gymnasium was cleverly arranged as an inn, with tables for guests. Flowers decorated each table. Cake and ice cream were served. A great deal of work went into this party, but it has remained in our minds as a real party.

The most fruitful year was the junior year. The prom was "the thing." Early in the year the class decided on an Indian Prom and began putting all efforts toward the best ever had. The class officers that year were: President, Bob Field; Vice President, Harry Weber; Secretary-treasurer, Adolph Priester. The prom was a success; a record crowd attended; and the proceeds were far above average.

In the fall of '41, thirty-six seniors enrolled. The class officers were: President, Gordon Foster; Vice President, Josephine Whiteagle; Secretary-treasurer, Dennis Connor. This class of seniors have had four years of many interesting events behind them. These four years have held many friendships, good times, subjects and activities, not to mention the knowledge gained.

The class will long remember its school days in the Wisconsin Dells High School, and the Wisconsin Dells High School will long remember this class.

Juniors

The Class of '43...such we are proud to be called! We entered Wisconsin Dells High School in the fall of 1939 about seventy strong. We finished our first year without any serious mishaps and a considerably paler shade of green than when we started.

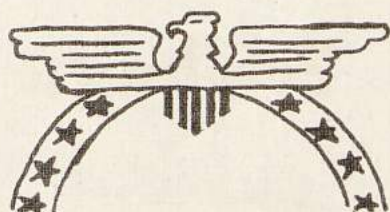

We began our second year of high school with our number slightly diminished, but our spirit was as strong as ever.

Now, as Juniors, our only aim is to next year follow successfully in the footsteps of our esteemed predecessors.

1st row: Tucker, Sherrod, Auerbach, Storandt, Burkman, Reynolds, H. DeCorah, Platt, Phelps, Ebert, Sandow, Draper, Mr. Koenig.
2d row: Howley, C. Dougherty, Ryan, Erickson, Nelson, Miner, Jones, Jantz, S. DeCorah, Novak, Maxfield, Kaiser, Field, Shumway.

4th row: R. Dougherty, Weber, D. Stroede, Hacker, Kaleas, Rockoff, Wenkman, Schmidt, Bass, Cornwell, Zinke, Bixby, B. Stroede.

Sophomores

We are the "high and mighty" sophomores. Above you see us cloaked in all the regal dignity of the elevated position of our rank.

Since we are no longer mere freshmen, we have gained the trust of all the dear faculty members and the respect of all our dear fellow students--we hope.

We are a very exceptional class with a rosy future ahead of us. This is insured by our intelligence, studiousness, and integrity. For corroboration of the previous statement, I refer you to Mr. Fitzpatrick. We expect some very famous people from our class, especially humorists and comedians.

We, the Class of '44, will be glad when we become juniors and can no longer be called by any of the uncomplimentary terms applied to sophomore students, no matter how much we may deserve them.

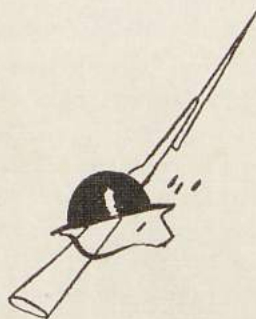

1st row: Nelson, Bixby, Morse, Taylor, Timm, Wedde, M. Gaffney, Kaleas, R. Whiteagle, E. Whiteagle, Tangney, Counsell, M. Wharry, Dobra, D. Gaffney, Griffin, Gillem.

Freshmen

I stood upon the mountain
 And looked down upon the plain,
 I saw a lot of green stuff
 That looked like waving grain.
 But then I looked again
 'And thought it must be grass,
 But Lo! to my horror,
 It was the Freshmen Class!

Prophecy

Alas! Poor Alice Blood is still looking. Nobody knows what for, but she is still looking. Perhaps one day she will find it.

Believe it or not, "Larry" Buckley didn't marry Phyllis after all. She said that it would either have to be her and the city--or him and his calf; and, well--"Larry" is still winning prizes at the County Fair.

Lorraine Nelson is now always surrounded by men. They simply worship her. Didn't you hear? She's a nurse now and is known as the "Florence Nightingale of the Twentieth Century."

Gordon Foster is now the owner of a chain of many theaters. The name--The Adams Bejou.

Duaine Counsell didn't turn out to be a coach after all. No; he and "Blondie" are down in Africa, with their Baby Dumpling, buying rough diamonds.

Remember Robert Field? Sure you do. He has been taken in as a junior member of Coakley Brothers, Milwaukee. Can it be that he has really learned bookkeeping at last?

You can now hear Allen Dearborn every evening at 7:30 over station, S-T-I-N-K. He is crooning for the Podunk Eggfeed Company at Montello. He finally got the contract away from Mr. Heidt.

Helen Retzlaff and "Arnie" Stowers have settled down and started a little community of their own--halfway between Delton and the Dells.

The prima donna of all our high school plays, Betty Ekberg, is a promising young actress for the Crothers Film Studio. She can be seen in the new picture, "Coed of Big Spring," at the local theater.

Beatrice Bixby is firmly settled down (with Duaine) just a few miles out of town with her six little chubby youngsters.

"Denny" Connor has realized his life ambition--he's a jitterbug!

A man of brilliance is Maurice Dougherty. He has just been accepted as a member of the "Quiz Kids."

The Admiral and Mrs. Joyce (Marlea Fabian) have moved to a farm and are raising----chickens.

Poor Ruth Stomner--she has plenty of "Jack" (money). She got it by way of her three former husbands. Alimony!

Frank Hacker is at last in a business that suits him very well. He is now a demonstrator for the Feather-Rest Mattress.

Marden Harrison is the idol of millions. He signed a contract with the Barnsmelt Studios, making him the cowboy star to replace Gene Autry.

"Dopey" Priester, the dream boy of the Senior Class,-----he's still dreaming.

Poor Tom Mulligan is still trying to get on the tire rationing board to arrange things so that he can continue those jaunts to Baraboo.

Helen Jones got tired of having such a common name, Jones--so she married a man named Smith.

After Roosevelt finally retired, Mary Paulson lived up to her reputation and became our first woman president. (P. S. She has all male secretaries and cabinet members.)

Prophecy

The curtain parts--the flood lights brighten--out on the stage walks-- Ah, yes, it's Josephine Whiteagle. In her spare time she gives lessons to Fritz Kreisler's grandchildren.

We all mourn the passing of our old pal, "Al" (Alice Sherrod). She went on a diet and one morning woke up to find she wasn't there.

Jeanne Wimmer, our little (?) "Butterball," has settled down in Portage with her little family of "Tacks." To relieve boredom she cruises up and down the Wisconsin River in one of those extra-special Portage-made boats.

Poor James Playman--to look at him you would never guess that he was the Jim we all knew back in '42. He worries continually over his sales for the Shell Oil Company. (Competition with dad, eh?)

Robert Scott has taken over "The Last Round-Up" and now has a very promising business.

At last Lucille Sobojinski has moved to Panama. She is a spy for the U. S. Government.

James Timm is still running from Lyndon to Mauston, then to Reedsburg and back to Lyndon. He just can't seem to make up his mind.

Laurence Severson is now the head of a large manufacturing firm--Tractors --and his secretary is--I give you one guess.

As for Harry Weber, we thought he was going to be a bachelor, but he fooled us. He is divorcing his fourth wife on the charges of non-support.

Anita Cole is a vivacious Wisconsin Senator. We heard that she is considered the best debater since Calhoun.

Milford Cole started out to be a truck farmer, but the lure of the city won. He is now a door-to-door salesman for "Glamour Snuggies."

Both Edith Gregerson and Lillian Nelson are somewhere in China--doing missionary work--they say.

Robert Ragan is launched on his get-rich-quick plan. He is buying old Fords. I hear tell there's good money in them now with defense and all.

Yes, we heard from Duaine Armson again. This time the letter was sent from Bathurst, Australia. He said he never could stay situated for any length of time in one place.

Oh, oh! Who is that? Alice Blood? Don't tell me; she's still looking!
From page 29:

I, Jeanne Wimmer, leave a well broken-in path to Portage to Beverly Counsell.

TO THE SCHOOL AT LARGE WE DO BEQUEATH:

1. A nice big '43 on the school building so the Junior Class won't feel too smug.

2. To the Freshmen Class our congratulations on coming through with flying colors in their trying first year.

3. To the Sophomore Class we leave the lumber bought for our prom, already used by the Class of '43. We hope that in the future this lumber may become a school institute.

4. To the Junior Class we leave embarrassing moments yet to come in Social Problems Class and a complete set of dictionaries for all who will be interested in what Mr. Heidt is talking about.

TO THE ILLUSTRIOUS MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY WE DO BEQUEATH:

All pleasant memories connected with the CLASS OF 1942.

Class Mottoes

- Duaine Armson--Being good is terribly hard work.
- Beatrice Bixby--Her mind is like a sun dial; it records only pleasantness.
- Alice Blood--I came, I saw, and I am still looking.
- Laurence Buckley--You can take the boy out of the country, but you can't take the country out of the boy.
- Anita Cole--I never say much, but I do a lot of thinking.
- Milford Cole--If trouble rings you up, drop the receiver.
- Dennis Connor--The man with burning ambition is seldom fired.
- Duaine Counsell--Punter of the pigskin, playboy of the parlor.
- Allen Dearborn--Silence is golden, but we're off the Gold Standard.
- Maurice Dougherty--Girls are a nuisance, but I wouldn't mind having one.
- Betty Ekberg--She is neither shy nor bold, but simply self-possessed--or possessed by someone else.
- Marlea Fabian--The best way to keep a secret is in circulation.
- Robert Field--I like work; it fascinates me. I can sit and look at it for hours.
- Gordon Foster--What is mind? No matter. What is matter? Never mind.
- Edith Gregerson--She is small--but so is a stick of dynamite.
- Frank Hacker--I'm deep in a dream; don't wake me.
- Marden Harrison--Pure as snow and just as slow to catch the drift.
- Helen Jones--She is not always as bashful as she seems.
- Thomas Mulligan--Of all the things that I like best, I just like to sit and rest.
- Lillian Nelson--A woman's face is her fortune only when it draws a lot of interest.
- Lorraine Nelson--You furnish the laugh; I'll furnish the joke.
- Mary Paulson--Success depends on backbone, not wishbone.
- James Playman--He knows that the football field isn't the only place where a fellow needs a line.
- Adolph Priester--My books will never suffer from overwork.
- Robert Ragan--Better the shoulder to the wheel than the back to the wall.
- Helen Retzlaff--Absence makes the heart grow fonder--of the other fellow.
- Robert Scott--I'm not afraid of anything, unless it's a woman.
- Laurence Severson--"A Country Gentleman," and a "Woman's Home Companion."
- Alice Sherrod--Unnecessary talking is just wasted energy--so she wastes it.
- Lucille Sobojinski--A friendly kid, from tip to toe, and that is more than a foot or so.
- Ruth Stomner--Most of these love triangles turn out to be "wrecktangles."
- Arnold Stowers--He's a whale in class and a shark in athletics.
- James Timm--His imagination gallops, but his judgment walks.
- Harold Weber--If school life is liberty, give me death!
- Josephine Whiteagle--Her wit goes all the way around and buttons in the back. Fitting, isn't it?
- Jeanne Wimmer--She is sweet enough to eat--and so she does.
